MISSION STATEMENT

Riverton School District values the uniqueness of individual students and provides a high quality education in our small and highly supportive community.

Our Board of Education, administration, faculty, staff, students and their families work together to maximize growth for all students academically, emotionally, physically and socially in a safe and healthy learning environment. All of our highly qualified teachers embrace technology, critical thinking skills, and collaborative work habits supported by the current Student Learning Standards to prepare students for further learning in the twenty-first century.

Riverton, New Jersey is a one square-mile town located eight miles from the Philadelphia metropolitan area. The small town atmosphere of Riverton allows children to live, grow, learn, and play in a friendly and secure environment. The Riverton Public School District consists of one school with an enrollment of approximately three hundred (300) students. Families value and support the preschool through grade eight education.
